A Puppet Ballet Telling the Stories of Beatrix Potter

Giant puppets dance and act in narrated ballets to these two beloved Beatrix Potter stories with music by William Walton. This full-scale theatrical production uses masks, costumes, and rod puppets up to 8 feet tall to bring these tales to life while remaining true to the original stories and illustrations.

Jemima Puddle-Duck has danced in major performing arts centers around the country including: Arts Connection in New York City; Cal Tech in Pasadena, CA; Tilles Center for the Performing Arts; Center East in Skokie, IL; Eisenhower Hall in West Point, NY; The Folly Theater in Kansas City, MO; and Kingsboro Community College in Brooklyn, NY.

“The Children in the 1,500-seat Kuss Auditorium giggled at all the right times, and most of them frantically waved their hands in the air to join the Hudson Vagabond Puppets on stage after Sunday’s show at the Clark State Performing Arts Center.”

Hudson Vagabond Puppets presents....

Jemima Puddle-Duck®

We had two sold-out performances of children grades K-4 who sat with full attention throughout the performance. ...both students and teachers after the shows...had nothing but positive enthusiastic comments.

Yvonne Kuhlman, Luther College, Decorah, Iowa

Your production was truly the highlight of this literary corner! Once the music rang out, the Hudson Vagabond Puppets were the Pied Piper of the festival, luring every child along with their parents for a spectacular production of Beatrix Potter’s stories
